

LABOR BOARD FAILS IN ITS EFFORTS TO AVERT RAIL STRIKE

CONFERENCE WITH CHIEFS ADJOURNS WITHOUT RESULTS

Members of Board Still Hopeful
Settlement May Be Reached, However

Unions Stand Pat

Maintain Attitude That Controversy Is Fight For Their Own Lives

(By The Associated Press.)

Chicago, Oct. 20. — Efforts by the Railroad Labor board to avert the threatened railroad strike through conferences with heads of the five unions which have ordered a walk-out effective October 30, failed when the meeting adjourned tonight with the announcement by the board that "while the discussions were beneficial, no definite results were obtained."

"There has been a full and frank discussion of the situation," said a statement given out by Ben W. Hooper, vice chairman of the board. "The labor board and the brotherhood chiefs exchanged views in a perfectly pleasant way. The interview was beneficial, but we cannot say that any definite results were obtained."

The five union presidents departed for their organization headquarters tonight with the announcement that plans for the proposed strike would go right ahead.

"The adjournment is final," Chairman R. M. Barton of the Labor board announced. "We do not plan any further conferences with the labor leaders nor do we plan, at present, to call in the railroad presidents. I cannot say what our next step might be."

While the board members came out of the afternoon session smiling and in a jovial mood, they left the night meeting with solemn faces and refused to publicly discuss the session — aside from the statements by Chairman Barton and Vice Chairman Hooper.

Union leaders said that the board had not presented anything which they looked on as in any way a tangible proposition.

Somebody's Move Next

"It's somebody's move next," said the head of one of the largest of the five organizations. "Whether it's ours, the board's or the roads' I don't know. I only know that the board brought us here and talked four hours without presenting anything which we could even consider as a compromise without result."

"We are going back to our headquarters. There is nothing scheduled immediately except to go right ahead with the plans for a strike."

Members of the board said that while the conference had ended and no immediate plans had been made, it still was possible to hold further meetings with the labor men before the date of the scheduled walk-out arrived.

"The board is determined to go as far as possible under the law," one member said, "and if there is no way to accomplish anything it will be the fault of the law, rather than of the board. We are satisfied that some governmental agencies will find a solution of the situation as every possible angle of the matter is undoubtedly being investigated down at Washington."

Little Optimism Expressed

None of the board members would indicate an optimistic view of the day's proceeding. Some members were inclined to the view that even the issuance of a strike order was tantamount to a defeat for the board, and that the brotherhoods could properly be cited to appear before the board for a formal determination as to whether its orders had been defied.

"The entire board feels that it is much better informed on the situation and we hope that some good may yet result from the board's inquiry," said the member.

Board members said that the labor chiefs remained indefinite in maintaining that present fight was a fight for the life of their organizations. The difficulties in the present crisis were declared by the union men, it was said, to be entirely the fault of the carriers, the brotherhood men taking the position that many railroads had violated the board's orders. They made it clear to the board, however, members said, that they did not consider these violations the fault of the board, but due to the fact that the transportation act "had no teeth."

Continued alleged violation of the board's orders had convinced the employees, they were quoted as telling the board, that there would be no end to encroachments on what the railroad workers considered their rights. Prior statements of the brotherhood leaders have repeatedly asserted that the question of working rules which they said they had been asked in working out, was the crux of the whole situation. Practically nothing was said in the conference today about the 12 per cent wage reduction of last July 1, which was the technical basis on which the strike was called, it was learned.

Members of the board said they did not consider that the board exhausted

Yesterday's Developments In the Strike Situation

The following were Thursday's developments in the railroad strike situation:

Conferences between the labor board and presidents of five unions which have ordered a walk-out adjourned with the announcement from the board that no definite results were obtained and the union chiefs returned to their headquarters.

Eleven "standard" unions representing nearly three-fourths of the country's railway workers and which have voted for, but have not called, a strike, marked the pending conferences between the labor board and the "Big Five."

Secretary of Commerce Hoover announced plans have been completed by his department for transportation of essentials in case of a rail tie-up.

Chairman McLeod of the Interstate Commerce commission and Acting Attorney General Goff conferred with President Harding over the rail situation.

Eastern roads advertised for men to fill vacancies which would result from a strike. Central Railroad of New Jersey received 30 many replies that it announced no more can be considered.

American Railwaymen's association, with 10,000 members, appealed to railway workers not to strike.

Railroads announced poll of employees to ascertain how many will remain at work if there is a strike.

New strike vote ordered among Pennsylvania line shop craft workers.

Announcement that Interstate Commerce commission freight rate decisions in regard to hay, grain and lumber are imminent.

Officials of Southern railway announced it was not represented at recent Chicago rail executives' meetings, where plans to seek a new ten per cent wage cut were announced.

its powers and that an executive session would be held tomorrow when further procedure would be determined.

Union Men Not Bluffing

Union heads expressed the opinion that if there were any concrete results of the conference, they lay in the fact that "the minds of the labor board members were disabused of the idea that the unions were not sincere in calling a strike."

"When we went in there," said one chief, "the board seemed to be of the opinion that we had been bluffing and were just waiting for some one to dissuade us from carrying out the strike order."

"Believing this, the board had virtually nothing to offer in the way of a settlement plan. Its members talked a lot but actually had little to say of any importance, merely trying to get us to change our stand."

"They seemed to think that we could postpone the strike until we made it plain that could not be considered and that there must be a settlement satisfactory to us of the walk-out will begin at a m. Oct. 30."

"We hope some angel will appear with a plan to avert the strike, but there were no such angels in today's meetings."

"The chief result of the conference was that the labor board knows that we are not bluffing and we know that they have no real plan to offer."

The only signed statement from a union head was from Warren S. Stone, president of the engineers.

It simply said:

"The situation is unchanged and I suppose I might add that I don't expect one angle of it to be changed even in Heaven, for if I get there I expect to still have a hundred newspaper reporters chasing me around for signed statements."

Return to Headquarters

Mr. Stone, William G. Lee, president of the trainmen and W. S. Carter, president of the firemen, returned to Cleveland tonight. L. E. Sheppard, head of the conductors, left for his organization headquarters in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, while T. C. Cashen took a midnight train for Buffalo, where headquarters of the Switchmen's union is located.

The executive committees of the engineers, firemen and of the conductors met in session. The committees of the other organizations will meet Monday.

While the scene of the strike activities shifted back to Cleveland with the ending of tonight's conference, a union man close to the brotherhood chiefs said he expected the next step to be taken from Washington.

"The Labor Board has, of course, forwarded a full report of the conference to Washington," he said. "If there are further steps towards conciliation they will be taken there. The unions will do nothing further."

The eleven "standard" unions which have voted for a strike but have not called one merely marked time today, taking no action pending the outcome of the Labor Board conference.

The maintenance of way chairmen held several informal sessions, the only speaking of their attitude being a remark by a high official that "this organization is going to let the other fellows start the ball rolling before doing any pushing."

They will meet again tomorrow as will the shop crafts and other organizations but there is little likelihood of a decision before Saturday or Sunday, it was said.

Chiefs of these organizations expressed keen interest in the Labor Board conference, but refused to comment on it.

WASHINGTON OPTIMISTIC; COUNTRY WON'T STARVE

Washington, Oct. 20. — The note of optimism in official discussion of the threatened railroad strike was more pronounced today. Several cabinet members expressed confidence that the "cooling off" which has intervened since the strike call had served to lessen the danger of a national tie-up.

Administration officials, when informed of the termination of the conference at Chicago between the Railroad Labor board and the union chiefs tonight, declined to make any comment, preferring, it was explained, to

TEN MORE DRY AGENTS 'FIRED'

New York Director Brings Total of Dismissals Up to Thirty Since Taking Office

PENNSYLVANIA ACTS

Warrants Issued for Arrest of Two Officials in Connection With Alleged Conspiracy

New York, Oct. 20. — Ten federal prohibition agents in various parts of the state today lost their jobs in the course of a campaign by E. C. Yellowley, federal prohibition director of the New York district, to weed out his staff.

Today's dismissals, Mr. Yellowley announced, bring the total number discharged since September 1, when he became head of the office here, to 30—about ten per cent of the entire payroll force in the state.

The prohibition director withheld the names of the men dropped from the government payroll, but said they were discharged because their services were unsatisfactory or that they had turned in untruthful reports.

None of the men discharged, Mr. Yellowley added, have been replaced.

Scandal in Pennsylvania

Philadelphia, Oct. 20. — Warrants were issued today for the arrest of A. F. Slater, former secretary to W. C. McConnell, director of federal prohibition enforcement in Pennsylvania, and Hiram W. Kenner, formerly agent in charge of permits for liquor withdrawals, on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the United States by means of fraudulent permits.

The men were recently dropped from the federal service.

An alleged conspiracy, by which liquor valued at nearly $15,000,000 was withdrawn from distilleries in many states through the issuance of fraudulent permits, was revealed tonight by high prohibition officers here.

According to prohibition officers here, the permits were issued promiscuously when it became known in Washington radical changes were to be made in the enforcement personnel of Pennsylvania. Stores were said to have been withdrawn from distilleries in New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Kentucky, Illinois, Indiana and Pennsylvania, some of which were captured by New York and Philadelphia enforcement agents before they could be delivered.

One shipment of 700 barrels of alcohol, containing 35,000 gallons, was seized in New York city, it was announced. The value of this shipment alone would exceed $500,000, based on the prevailing price of alcohol, and the bootleggers' price, the authorities said, would put its ultimate value beyond $1,000,000. Officials declared tonight the government tax on this shipment would exceed $150,000.

Much of the liquor alleged to have been withdrawn already has been delivered, officials said, and efforts will be directed toward its discovery.

TEX FAILS TO SIGN DEMPSEY

Chicago, Oct. 20. — Tex Rickard, fight promoter, returned to New York tonight without having signed Jack Dempsey for a match with Jess Willard, but with the announcement that Dempsey definitely had agreed to fight Willard and that the details would be settled soon.

Pleanty of Men Want Work

New York, Oct. 20. — Executives of railroads entering New York, in conference today, decided to take a poll of train employees to determine the number who would stick to their posts. Officials of various roads expressed confidence that they would encounter no difficulty in filling empty places.

They based their belief in large part on the response they said they had received to advertisements for workers to fill any vacancies that might occur. In addition, the executives announced they were lining up pensioned railroad workers, many of whom were said to have volunteered again to don overalls and uniforms. Still another source of labor, railroad officials asserted, was to be found in college, club and commuting circles.

President W. H. Croxall of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, announced tonight that employees who forfeited insurance protection from labor organizations by disregarding the strike order would be provided with new policies by the railroad company. The policies would be carried upon identical terms, President Croxall said.

NEW YORK CITY MILK MEN REFUSED WAGE INCREASE

New York, Oct. 20. — The proposed contract between locals of the milk drivers' union and the distributors, calling for a wage advance of $5 a week, was rejected today by the New York Milk Conference board. A new contract was submitted on behalf of the employees which the board stated would give the selling forces a wage based on commission and adjusted in such a way that the average wages would not be less than those now paid. To employees in the plants, stables, garages and the transportation department, the board offered to continue the existing wage.

"Our committee notes with considerable concern," the notification said, "that your proposed contract carries an advance in pay to all employees of $5 a week, shorter hours and other conditions which further limit output and increase their cost. To grant these is impossible; to demand them indicates an utter lack of appreciation of the general situation which faces not only ourselves but the country as a whole."

Four University Students Killed At Grade Crossing

Chicago, Oct. 20. — Four students from the University of Chicago driving to the University of Illinois game at Urbana, Ill., Saturday, were killed near Milford, Ill., tonight when an Elgin, Joliet and Eastern train struck their car.

Those in the car who were instantly killed, were Thomas Morrison of Chicago, Harold Skinner of Oak Park, Ill., Stanwood Johnstone of Minneapolis, Minn., and Herschel Hopkins from the University of Oregon.

Walter Reecien and Lewis Roberts, both of Chicago, were sitting in the front seat of the car. The other four were in the back, which received the full force of the train. Reecien received a fractured skull and broken leg.

The car, according to Roberts, got almost across the tracks before being hit.

FOUND GUILTY OF MURDERING FAMILY

Connecticut Storekeeper Set Free to Their Home and Shot Three as They Emerged

Middletown, Conn., Oct. 20. — Emil Schutte, storekeeper of the village of Shaler, was found guilty of murder in the first degree by a jury in the Middlesex county superior court today. All six counts against him, charging him with the killing of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ball and their son Jacob, by gun and fire, were upheld.

Schutte showed no emotion when he faced the jury and heard the verdict. Judge Malbie deferred sentence until next Tuesday. There is another indictment against Schutte charging him with the murder of Dennis Leduc, his farm hand, by gun and arson, last April.

The evidence against Schutte which was deemed vital by the state was given by his son, Julius, who testified that on the night of December 30, 1915, he went with his father to a bungalow close by the shack in which the Ball family lived, and at 2 a. m. both went into a cornfield. He said his father saturated two bags of shavings with oil and placed them against a door of the shack. He swore that his father set these bags on fire and as the Ball family came out, first the father, then the wife and then the son, his father shot them and dragged the bodies into the burning shack. Julius swore that he and his father returned home, his father warning him to keep quiet.

It was a part of the evidence of the state that Schutte had trouble with the Balls over a piece of land.

When Schutte was returned to jail, he joked with the custodians as he left the court room and paid no attention to the large crowd which had gathered.

GENERAL DIAZ TO REVIEW WEST POINT CADETS TODAY

New York, Oct. 20. — An automobile trip of 125 miles through the hills and dales of Long Island, with a visit at the grave of Theodore Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, occupied General Armando Diaz today.

He inspected the state asylum at Kings park, where 130 shell-shocked war veterans are receiving vocational training, and was a luncheon guest at the Piping Rock club. Tonight, the general, his aids and the party of American Legion officials who accompanied him returned to New York for a dinner tendered the Italian warrior by city officials.

Tomorrow he will visit Grant's tomb and then board a destroyer which will take him to West Point to review the cadet corps. In the evening Governor Miller will be his host at dinner here.

4 MASKED BANDITS ROB ONTARIO BANK

Wyoming, Ont., Oct. 20. — Four masked bandits robbed the Bank of Toronto here this afternoon of a sum estimated at $14,000, and escaped after a running gun fight.

H. Lambert, manager of the bank, was held up in his office by one of the quip while another, asking for $5 in change, drew a revolver on the teller. The other two held up the bookkeeper and three customers who were in the bank at the time. The bank staff was compelled to lie on the floor while one of the robbers went through the cash drawers and safes. The manager, his assistants and customers were then locked in the bank vault.

Ronald Brown, a junior bank clerk, was near the back door when the robbers entered. He immediately rushed out and gave the alarm. After collecting the bank's available cash, the robbers, described by Mr. Lambert as "dark, foreign-appearing chaps," sped away in an automobile. As they did so, several citizens, summoned by Brown, shot at them and the fire was returned. No one was hurt.

JUDGE ACCUSED OF FAILING TO AID WOMAN HE STRUCK

Pasadena, Cal., Oct. 20. — Federal Judge Fays Morris of Duluth, Minn., who has been sitting recently in Salt Lake city, was taken into custody here today, after, according to the police, he had failed to stop and render aid to Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes after the automobile he was driving had struck and slightly injured her.

Motorcycle officers made a chase of seven blocks before catching up with the jurist, they said. They took him to the police station where he was released on $1,000 bonds pending a hearing tomorrow. The police said they would file against him a charge of failing to render assistance, failing to report an accident, or both.

VETERAN REINSMAN INJURED

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 20. — Tommy Murphy, one of the veteran drivers on the grand circuit, was injured here today when Peter Henley stumbled and fell in the second race. It was said his injuries were not serious.

ULSTER MAY BE TODAY'S TOPIC

Irish Peace Conference Plans to Take Up Its Most Difficult Problem

CRAIG NOT INVITED

Ulster Premier Will Have No Part in Discussion — DeValera Sends Message to Pope

(By The Associated Press.)

London, Oct. 20. — The most difficult problem facing the Irish conference—that of Ulster—will, it is understood, come up before the full conference, which is dealing with the subject of Irish peace, at a session to be held tomorrow.

The Sinn Fein delegates having finished their work on sub-committees with the British representatives have been busy today with their preparations concluding their case for presentation to the conference. The Sinn Fein has maintained its determination not to agree to enter the British commonwealth unless Ireland is treated as a unit. It is therefore up to the government side to induce Ulster to consider some means by which, while preserving its local autonomy, it may form a part of the Irish state.

The Ulsterites have resisted all appeals thus far, and the present restlessness in Belfast is attributed in high quarters in London to apprehension that the rank and file of the British representatives at the conference contemplate sacrificing them to the desire for an Irish settlement.

Craig Not in Conference

Discrediting the widespread belief that Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, will take part in the conference, members of the Sinn Fein delegation said today there was no intention on their part, at least for the present, of consenting to admit Sir James. They added that they were perfectly willing to discuss with him every aspect of the Ulster question but declared that they would not recognize him as the official representative of Ireland, or any part of Ireland.

There has been some agitation among Southern Unionists to a claim for representation in the conference, but instead of this, at the invitation of Premier Lloyd George, they have selected Earl Middleton, provost of Trinity college, and Andrew Jameson, director of the Bank of Ireland, to be available for consultation with the British delegation on any question affecting their position. On the other hand, Captain Henry Harrison, secretary of the Irish Dominion league, has advised them that they can best protect their interests by entering into consultations with representatives of the Daily Express.

The Sinn Fein reiterates that it will be impossible for Premier Lloyd George to go to Washington until a "show down" has been reached by the conference.

DeValera Wires the Pope.

Dublin, Oct. 20. — Eamonn DeValera, the Republican leader, in a message to Pope Benedict, calls attention to the telegrams exchanged between King George and the Pope yesterday, and says:

"The people of Ireland are confident that the ambiguities in the reply sent in the name of King George will not mislead you to believing that the troubles arise in Ireland or that the people of Ireland owe allegiance to the British king."

"The independence of Ireland has been formally proclaimed by the regularly-elected representatives of the people of Ireland and ratified by subsequent plebiscites. The troubles between Ireland and Great Britain have their source in the fact that the rulers of Great Britain have sought to impose their will upon Ireland and by brute force rob the Irish people of their liberty."

The message expresses the desire that the Irish people be at peace and friendship with the people of Great Britain, but adds that no consideration would ever induce the Irish people to abandon their consistency through persecution and martyrdom, which it declares, has revealed the realities of the people's attachment to the faith of their fathers and which proves the reality of their attachment to their national freedom.

Times Assails DeValera

London, Oct. 20. — The London Times, whose attitude with respect to the Irish claims, short of complete separation, has been habitually friendly, assails Mr. DeValera in a severe editorial for his telegram to the pope which it imagines "will fill His Holiness with dismay and indignation arouse the indignation of the people of his country and the dominions."

"Towards the pope himself," says The Times, "it is an act of impudence and towards the king, whose solitude for the Irish people needs no proof, it is unmannerly to the point of churlishness."

COLGATE WORKS BY NIGHT IN PREPARATION FOR CORNELL

Hamilton, N. Y., Oct. 20. — Preparation for the Colgate football team for the annual struggle with Gilmour College's Cornell eleven is being aided by a squadron of automobiles, whose lights, when dusk settles over the campus, play over Whitall field.

The Maroon forces are leaving no stones unturned in their effort to down the undefeated and unscathed Ithaca eleven. The Colgate team labored over an hour by searchlight yesterday.

URGES LEGION TO CELEBRATE OCT 27

Birthday of Former President Roosevelt Should Be Commemorated, Emery Says

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 20. — Commemoration of the sixty-third anniversary of the former President Theodore Roosevelt's birth on October 27 is urged by John G. Emery, national commander of the American Legion, in a letter sent today to all Legion posts.

"The American Army in France and in the camps at home never had a better friend than former President Theodore Roosevelt," says Commander Emery's letter. "If he had had his wish he would have fought and died at our side, as it was, he fought the good cause at home until, like the soldiers on the firing line, he fell, fighting with his face to the enemy."

"By his vigorous efforts for preparedness and national unity he made Americans his debtors. But men who wore the uniforms of the United States are peculiarly in his debt. No one will ever know how many Americans lives were saved to future usefulness by his appeals for adequate preparation before war came and for public support of the nation's fight."

The National Commander urges local posts throughout the country either to organize celebrations of their own or to take active part in whatever celebrations may be arranged by other bodies in their communities."

NEW YORK HERALD CENSURED FOR PRINTING "CRIME LIST"

New York, Oct. 20. — The Richmond county grand jury has returned a presentment to Judge Tiernan of St. George, Staten Island, censuring the publishers, editors and employees of the New York Herald for publishing a list of unsolved murder mysteries in New York alleged to be "in great part false and untrue." The presentment followed institution of John Doe proceedings at the request of Mayor Hylan and Police Commissioner Enright.

No further legal action followed the presentment, which stated that an examination of the statistics showed that no law had been violated.

STOCK MARKET IS FIRM TO STRONG

Developments in Railroad Situation Prompt Further Retirement of Short Contracts

New York, Oct. 20. — The stock market was firm to strong during the greater part of today's session. Developments in the railroad and general industrial situation prompted further retirement of short contracts.

Bears became more cautious in their operations because of the punishment meted out to them in the sharp recovery of Fullman and American Sugar preferred on contradiction of unfounded rumors.

Intimations from well-informed sources that rate reductions on foodstuffs and other commodities probably would precede any cut in railroad wages indicated that active measures were being taken to avert the threatened strike.

Transportations held their gains of the past few days and in several instances these were augmented by the cheaper rails, as well as equipments, but steel reflected the poor statement of the Republic Iron and Steel company, those shares showing further depression.

Food shares were strongest of the specialties, almost every issue in the division being stimulated by the improvement in sugar. Among the less distinctive miscellaneous stocks, those of the department and chain stores were in demand.

No obstacles to the market's betterment were presented by money or foreign exchange.

Bonds were relatively dull, but there were few exceptions in the domestic and foreign divisions to the higher trend of prices, convertible rails again leading.

IRISH BULLETIN ANSWERS

PREMIER CRAIG'S SPEECH

Dublin, Oct. 20. — The Irish Bulletin, official organ of the Daily Express, referring to the recent speech of Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, invites him to answer the question whether in Ulster Belfast there has not been more bloodshed, destruction of property, rioting and looting than in any other city in Ireland, and with the exception of the burning of Cork by British forces, than all the other cities of Ireland put together. It inquires also whether thousands of workers expelled from Belfast shipyards and left to starve were not Nationalists to a man and whether the only city in which the truce is ignored is the only Irish city where Orange population is in the majority and where the Unionists have control of the forces paid to prevent disorder.

THE FIFTH AMENDMENT.

The Women's City and the City
Club of New York city, cooperating in the work of furnishing information to the voters of the state relative to the proposed constitutional amendments next month to be voted upon,
has sent out a circular giving its views of the seven propositions. One of these is the fifth amendment, which has to do with children's rights and courts of domestic relations. Since this is one of the two or three most important of the propositions to be voted upon, the explanation of its provisions given in the circular is herewith reproduced.

This change in the constitution,
says the statement by the city club,
was proposed at the Constitutional convention in 1915. The present limitations of the state constitution make it impossible for the legislature to consider upon children's courts and courts of domestic relations the equity power necessary to properly protect the rights and safeguard the interests of the children who come within their jurisdiction.

The proposed change would not of itself confer additional power upon existing children's courts of the state.
It would, however, clothe the legislature with greater power and permit it to accomplish certain reforms which it is now unable even to consider. It has been drawn for the purpose of permitting a more humane and a sensible adjustment of our problems than exists at present, and it aims to protect the child and the family and to safeguard them as a unit of society.

Children's courts may not under the present constitution appoint a guardian of the person. They are often forced, therefore, to commit children to institutions when they would be glad to place them in the care of a dependable relative. In most of the cases coming before the children's court the relatives are too poor to go to the expense of surrogate court proceedings to secure guardianship, but it does not seem right that the child should be denied the protection of a legal guardian merely on this account.

The Children's Code commission, which is at work on the collection and coordination of all the laws of the state which affect children, will be seriously hampered in revising the laws relating to children's courts unless this amendment is passed.

Under the present laws the Domestic Relations court has jurisdiction
only over the question of non-support and abandonment—it is in reality
a dollar and cents jurisdiction. No matter what evidence of abuse, bad treatment, immorality, etc., may be brought to light in a case before this court, the judge may adjudicate only the question of support. As to the question of putting a person under bond to keep the peace, or as to which parent is the fit guardian for the children—these must all be taken to other courts.

Once the hands of the legislature are untied by the passage of this amendment it may provide through children's courts and courts of domestic relations so that we may get away from the notion that the child is to be dealt with as a criminal, so that in matters relating to the family for the "correction, protection, guardianship and disposition of delinquent, neglected or dependent minors," etc., the state may so exercise its power through the court as to secure to every child an opportunity to develop under favorable conditions.

WHO HAS DR. WINDSOR'S MONEY?

Question That is Puzzling County
Officials to Solve.

County officials and others are interested in solving the question of who has Dr. E. C. Windsor's money.
On Wednesday the well known physician dropped his pocketbook on the streets of Schenectady, where he lives.
Later it was picked up by a resident who, observing two strangers standing near, inquired if either had lost his purse and one of them replying in the affirmative, she turned it over to them. Still later in the day the purse was left at the post office for Dr.
Windsor, but when it reached him a roll of bills with a rubber band about it was missing. It contained about $25.

The two fellows were traced to Oneonta and one of them was located.
He alleged that the other man had taken the purse and after the woman left had proposed that they proceed
on their way and divide the proceeds.
This he alleges he refused to do and they separated. The accused man was located but when he was questioned he stoutly asserted his innocence, gave good references as to his character and then, when the accuser was sought, he had disappeared and could not be located at the address given.
It is now feared that the guilty fellow made a getaway, while the officers were endeavoring to locate his companion. The case is certainly a peculiar one. Dr. Windsor is desiring of recovering his money.

OVER MILLION IN OLD TRUNKS

Death of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Simms Reveals Amazing Fortune—Former
Was Master of Otsego.

The following press dispatch which appeared in the evening papers of yesterday will be read with interest by many residents of Otsego county:
New York, Oct. 20.—For nearly 15
years Dr. Joseph Simms, noted lecturer and writer, and his wife—a devoted old couple—lived the lives of "hot hermits" in a small apartment on the top floor of the Empire hotel, Manhattan Square and 63rd street. From their sequestered apartments it was believed they were of limited means and endeavoring to conserve their funds
so they would not have to call upon friends for support during their declining years.

But yesterday there came an amazing revelation when Robert Han-dry, a nephew of the deceased couple,
made deposits of cash and bonds aggregating nearly $1,000,000 in various banks of the city. It was learned that the money and bonds were found in trunks of the old couple in their apartment when P. B. Land, manager of the hotel, and Mr. Hendry searched the apartment and the trunks, after Mrs. Simms' death. Dr. Simms died in April, 1920.

The discovery of the cash, which amounted to $200,000 and the stocks and bonds, was a complete surprise to Mr. Hendry and Mr. Land, as they believed Dr. and Mrs. Simms possessed nothing in the world but a few old books and the old trunks which were in the rooms.

Lived Like Poor People.

Mr. Hendry was unable to account for the wealth of his aunt and uncle and said that he always knew they had some money, but believed that it was not more than a couple of hundred dollars. He is the only surviving heir and it is believed the entire fortune will become his.

Evidence that they lived the lives of poor people was the fact that they would not permit hotel servants to enter their apartment to clean it and always took their meals, which consisted mostly of fruits and vegetables
in their rooms.

Dr. Simms was born in Otsego county. He was a public school teacher from 1850 to 1854 and from 1861 to 1871 studied in the medical department of the New York university. He began lecturing on physiology and other subjects in 1874. He served in the Union army under Grant and Sherman. In later years he lectured in all the principal cities in the United States. He spent three years in the islands of the Pacific and traveled through America from Alaska to Patagonia, studying birds, fishes, animals and races of men.

Dr. Simms wrote "Physiological and and 'Physiological Chart,' 1877; 'Nature's Revelations of Character,' 1879; 1875; 'Health and Character,' 1879;
'Practical and Scientific Physiology,' 1884 and 'Past, Present and Future of Women,' 1889.

Dr. Simms occasionally visited his native county, stopping several times in Oneonta, where he visited and inspected the public library. To it he gave several large collections of books,
most of them on physiology, physiology and cognate subjects. When in the city he called on some of the trustees of the library and his visits are pleasantly remembered and though there was certainly nothing about his appearance to indicate that he was rich beyond the dreams of avarice, he did not on the other hand convey an impression of poverty.

Rescue Workers' Statement.

Editor the Star and the Public of Oneonta.

Dear Citizens:
Greetings: If the Editor will kindly grant us space enough to express our surprise, it is incredible why Mr.
Hicks, secretary Chamber of Commerce is using the influence of his office in an endeavor to impress you not to give The American Rescue Workers contributions for religious charitable work here in Oneonta.

The American Rescue Workers is incorporated according to the laws of New York state its particular business is the evangelization of the masses, the future improvement in religious knowledge and furtherance of the same and the work of benevolent, charitable and missionary purposes.
The establishment of Corps of American Rescue Workers wherever necessary to promote and extend the Gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Yes, we are on our way to Troy to work there, but positively most of the funds would be used to support our homes. If you share our indignation, please send us the information, rescue homes for fallen women, orphan homes for children and homes for working girls are a part of our work. So we earnestly appeal to you to kindly help us to help others.
We remain your faithful servants in God's service.

CATARHIAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME.

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or if you have just a little hard of hearing or have had noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Earbust (Globe-Kidney), and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little grain-dust. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.
This will often bring quick relief from the distressing hard noises, catarrhal deafness, ringing, etc., and breathing become easy and the inflamed membrane of the ear
is top dropping into the throat.
It is easy to prepare, and little and is pleasant to take. Anyone suffering with Catarrhal deafness or hard hearing should give this prescription a trial.

LEWIS SEES COMMISSION

Abram C. Lewis Sues John R. Todd, Alleging That He Is Entitled to $275 for Settling South Side Exposed Cases in Court at Cooperstown.

Real estate men and others are watching with interest the outcome of the trial of the action brought by Abram C. Lewis against John R. Todd, which was commenced late yesterday afternoon in supreme court at Cooperstown. According to the evidence of the plaintiff he had an agreement with Todd for the sale of the latter's farm on South Side, whereby Lewis, if he found a customer for the farm willing to pay the price of $7-500 and his commission of five per cent or $375, that he could sell the farm. Some time afterward, when Todd was away, Lewis took a party to the farm and showed it to him and the prospective customer became interested. Later he purchased the farm direct at Todd, paying the purchase price fixed but nothing additional. Now Lewis is seeking to recover the amount of his commission or $275.

The evidence for the plaintiff was finished before court adjourned late yesterday afternoon and the case will,
it is expected, be finished today. City Attorney Owen C. Becker is representing Todd and Elmer Attorney A. J.
O'Connor of Delaware county is appearing for Lewis. The case is one that has arisen in the experience of nearly if not all real estate dealers.
It often occurring that after the agent
has shown the property that the customer buys direct from the seller.

In this case, however, the purchase price was the amount specified that Todd should net for the property.

Earlier in the day the case of Willis Griffey against Charles Hamm to recover for services rendered was submitted to the jury and they awarded a verdict of $361.50 to the plaintiff.
Attorney James P. Friery of Schenevus, who represented the defendant, last evening stated that while he had not had opportunity to confer with his client, he himself was considering an appeal to the higher courts.

After this case had been submitted and before the Lewis vs Todd case was moved, the case of Richard Grundman against Melvin A. Mann, the South Main street tire dealer, was tried. This is to recover a balance owed to the plaintiff. It appears that the defendant bought a tire repairing outfit and business of the plaintiff and later failing to keep the payments, turned the business and outfit back, alleging that it was agreed that this should balance the account. This the plaintiff denied. The jury rendered a verdict of $224 and interest for the plaintiff. Claude A. Smith appeared for the plaintiff and George L.
Buckner for the defendant.

Concerning Colliers Auto Accident.

Otis H. Blencoe, proprietor and driver of the Worcester bus, The Star, to state that the report in these columns relative to the auto accident in the vicinity of Colliers Wednesday night was in one respect incorrect. His bus, he states, was running at a speed of about 20 miles an hour, and did not slacken speed until after he was made back to ascertain the trouble. As he has driven approximately 60,000 miles and has always looked after the welfare of others, Mr. Blencoe feels that a possible, though unintentional reflection may have been cast upon him.

SCRANTON LIKES THE FOLLIES.

Coming to the Oneonta Theatre Mon-

A most delightful performance of the "Greenwich Village Follies," presented by the Robertson, was given at the majestic theatre last evening by a splendid company. A modest audience witnessed and enjoyed the performance from start to finish, especially the specialty numbers which were of high character. The excellent impression left last evening assures large audiences for this afternoon and evening.

To most newcomers the "Follies" production is well known. It is a high class, wholesome, revulsion
comedy of the New York Latin quarter, with an opening scene touching on the confusion of the subway. This leads cleverly into the presentation of a series of pleasant musical, dance, acrobatic and other specialties. The ensemble numbers are especially gotten up and the chorus is made up of pretty and capable girls who appear in several sets of gorgeous costumes.

MOOSE INITIATE LARGE CLASS.
Groupe of 45 Heclore Degrees and Known as J. J. Davis Class.

Last evening, at the Moose building on Dietz street, there was a large gathering of the clan to witness the initiation of the large class of 45 members who will be known as the James J. Davis class, in recognition of the services of Davis to the organization and to Mooseheart and his elevation to a position in the cabinet of President Harding.

After the initiation there was a substantial banquet served, to which all did ample justice and which was keenly enjoyed. During the banquet speeches were made by Mr. Gibney, the organizer working in the city, Charles Southworth, Ira Stillman and others. The event was one of the most enjoyable in the history of the local organization.

WORK OF SALVATION ARMY

Summary of Its Activities and Plans and Reasons Why It Appeals for Support.

Lending a helping hand to the poor and needy families of Oneonta, the Salvation Army workers have been playing a magnificent role in the daily, inconspicuous dramatization of the city's welfare work, a part which shows through statistics that they have enacted more than 1,500 good deeds for those needing relief and comfort during the first nine months of 1921.

Besides these material and concrete examples of their work, Captain and Mrs. William Harrison and their co-workers have contributed deeds of practical Christianity which cannot be adequately expressed in figures or words. The winning of 7 converts to a better spiritual understanding and happiness and an attendance of 11,419 men and women at religious meetings tell but a part of the story.

Another shining example of this aspect of the Salvation Army's work is the practical aid extended to wayward girls. The city court has turned over many such cases to the organization the past year, and the boy or girl, often a victim of circumstance, has been encouraged to lead a straight life. Weekly visitations to the Fox Memorial hospital and private homes, where the worker is often requested to give spiritual aid, are other exemplifications of the same type of practical endeavor of the Army.

A report by Captain Harrison shows that since January in material relief of the poor and needy, 522 garments and pairs of shoes have been given out, 157 homes have been supplied with food, 197 meals have been furnished for the hungry, 37 have obtained lodging, 100 women and children were taken on outings, and 125 other persons have been given relief, which with the 70 converts won to a better life, total 1532 good deeds done in nine months of 1921. These figures do not include 4,750 pounds of coal distributed and 576 hours spent in visiting homes and the hospital. Also, every Christmas the Salvation Army distributes baskets of food among needy families, 60 such baskets being distributed last year, and a Christmas tree followed by an entertainment is given for the poor children. This latter work will be provided as before through the Christmas kettle fund of the Army.

All of this work of the Salvation Army, including its attention to relief cases, is, through the co-ordination of the Oneonta Community association, being done in co-operation with the other organizations, so that no overlapping or duplication of effort or relief is had. All of this work is badly needed in Oneonta and the city cannot afford to have any of it discontinued.

COMMUNITY CHEST NEWS.

Mass Meeting Sunday Afternoon at 2:30—Major's Named.

With arrangements complete for the community gathering Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Oneonta theatre to hear the addresses by Dr. Henry Gaines Hawn, and a meeting of all team workers scheduled for 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Community chest, 17 Ford avenue, the Community chest committee is rapidly getting everything in readiness for the campaign next week to raise $30,000 in one campaign instead of ten, for the health and social welfare organizations of Oneonta.

Majors C. R. McCarthy, M. V. Beckstead and J. J. Bookhout have been selected by the committee to head the three men's divisions of four teams each. Mrs. Lester E. Lee, Mrs. Harry W. Lee and Mrs. A. B. Ford will head the three divisions of women canvassers.

Every man and woman worker has been urged by Chairman E. W. Elmore to be on hand at the meeting this evening. Final campaign instructions will be given out at that time. The attendance at all parties, captains and team workers is essential.

Anticipation created by the announcement that Dr. Hawn would come Sunday to deliver another address in Oneonta, it is expected, will assure a large audience at the theatre for the gathering. J. S. Hathaway has generously donated the use of the theatre, stopping construction work on the building for that purpose, and Manager Ed R. Moore has diligently completed the necessary arrangements.

Raymond Delaney is Surprised.

About 16 High school friends of Raymond Delaney gave him a surprise party at his home on Cherry street Monday evening, the occasion being his birthday. Games, music and dancing included the enjoyments of the evening. Raymond was presented with a beautiful fountain pen, after which delicious refreshments were served. All departed for their homes wishing him many happy birthdays.

AN IMPRESSIVE PERFORMANCE

Years' Well-Known Play, Splendidly Rendered by Normal Students.

Yesterday afternoon at the Normal the students and their guests were entertained by an intelligent interpretation of "The Hour Glass" by William Butler Yeats. The play itself is essentially a morality which emphasizes this great truth: whoever loses faith in spiritual things has lost everything that makes life serene and happy. In a day of materialism this truth deserves serious consideration.

The students who essayed the various roles entered commendably into the spirit of the drama. Miss Gallagher as The Wise Man played a difficult part exceedingly well. Miss Preston directed with skillful flexibility the changing moods of The People. Miss Ireland as The Angel impressively rendered her lines. The Pupils of The Wise Man—Miss Jack, Miss Peggin and Miss Webster—contributed a great deal to the effectiveness of the drama. Miss Burman as The Wise Man's Wife and Dorothy Reynolds and Ellen Smith as his Children added the touch essential to make the morality seem a reality.

Although the play is cast in sombre hues, an eternal truth shines through the gloom. The players made that truth impressive.

In every way the music for the exercises was in keeping with the sentiment of the drama. Moreover the execution was of high character. Miss Muriel Barnes played well a "Reverie" by Schmitt, Miss Josephine Lauren sang splendidly two beautiful songs, "God's Secret Flag" by Bowser "Life and Death" by Coleridge Taylor. The School Glee club under the direction of Miss Greene rendered superbly Rachmaninoff's "Glorious Forever." The program was concluded by Handel's "Largo" which was sung by the entire school in sincere spirit and striking volume.

The Star unites with the guests of the occasion in congratulating all who made the entertainment so meritorious.

WILD CALLS LOCAL HUNTERS.

Many Planning Trips to Adirondacks—Party Brings Home Large Buck.

Since the deer season opened on October 15, the call of the wild has been irresistible to many in the city and several hunting parties are being formed by those who never fail to spend a few days each year with gun and guide in the northland. Several hunters are already in the woods and at least one party has returned, and not empty-handed, for a 175-pound, six-pronged buck was the trophy brought out of the Adirondacks Wednesday by O. B. Grant and William Sessions, George Perkins and William Rogers. Mr. Perkins brought down the buck, which was the only one seen by the party. They were hunting in the vicinity of Minerva.

A party consisting of B. E. Swart, Lincoln Epps and Fred Peck, will hit the trail Monday. The three will be hunting in the Adirondacks. The party will be hunting in the Adirondacks. The party will be hunting in the Adirondacks.

American Legion Ball.

Plans have been nearly completed by a committee of the American legion for the third annual post ball to be held at the state armory on the evening of Armistice day, November 11. This annual affair has been a feature of the city's social life since the organization of the local legion post and it is planned to make the dance this year the best yet held.

The armory will be elaborately decorated and the services of one of the best local orchestras in the city will be secured. The committee, headed by Earl F. Elmore, is doing intensive work and is positive that the ball will eclipse, from the standpoint of music, decorations and special features, any ever held in Oneonta.

West End Meeting Postponed.

The meeting of the Foreign Missionary society of all Zion Park Methodist church, which was to have been held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Treedale, is indefinitely postponed, owing to the illness of the president, Mrs. Riley Crippen, who is confined to her home on Lower Chestnut street. Latest reports state that Mrs. Crippen is slightly improved.

Entertain Children of Cradle Roll.

The superintendent of the Cradle Roll, Mrs. Enos Beams, and her helpers, entertained the Cradle Roll children and their mothers at the Main Street Baptist church from 2 until 4 Thursday afternoon. A fine program was rendered, after which delicious refreshments were served. About 30 were present.

The threatened railroad strike has frightened an Oneonta restaurant man and he wants to sell. In our opinion there will be no strike. THIRD DAY OF REGISTRATION.

Today and Tomorrow Last Opportunity for Voters of City to Enroll.

The attention of voters in the city of Oneonta is called to the fact that today is the third day for registration, and that tomorrow is the last day. While in other parts of Otsego county, and in all of Delaware county, personal canvassing is not required, every qualified elector in the city of Oneonta who expects to vote must personally enroll on one of these two days, if already he or she has not done so.

The places of registration are given in a local notice appearing this morning in other columns of The Star. In connection with the hours, which are from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m., are given, as are also the boundaries of the 12 election districts.

On the first two days of registration for 1919, the last year of election for city officers, there were 1,346 names enrolled. Last year, with the added interest of the state and national campaign, there were 2,549. For the first two days of the present year the enrollment was only 1,206. The total enrollment last year, at the end of the fourth day was 4,603. This would indicate that there must be some lively work in enrollment if the above figures are even approximated in the two days to come.

COUNTRY CLUB AROUSED.

Accused That Sportsmen (?) Should Attempt to Kill Pet Pheasants.

Members of the Oneonta Country club were amazed yesterday to learn a number of so-called "sportsmen," but unworthy of the name and some of their members of the club, hovering around the outskirts and crossing the grounds of the club and armed with shotguns evidently endeavoring to kill some of the pheasants which the club has carefully reared and tamed to ornament the grounds. Members have experienced much pleasure in watching them about the golf course and are disgusted beyond words that anyone would endeavor to kill them.

These birds are nearly as tame as barnyard fowls and there is no more "sport" in shooting them than there would be in shooting an old hen in the dooryard. It is suggested that if these "sportsmen" are in need of food if they will apply to Mr. Simpson at the club. He is authorized to supply them without charge.

Strike Not Feared by Theatres.

That the city will not lack for amusement in case of a railroad strike is evident from the preparations being made by the Oneonta and Strand theatres to secure films if the strike materializes. Manager Rose of the Strand states that his theatre will run on its usual schedule no matter how long the strike should last. He has made arrangements to have his film features brought by automobile from Albany.

George A. Roberts, general manager of the Hathaway theatres, is now in the city on a tour around the circuit to complete arrangements to have the Oneonta theatre, supplied with pictures by automobile from New York in the event that rail shipment is impossible.

Attend State G. I. A. Convention.

Mrs. Arthur Keen, president of the local lodge of the G. I. A. to the B. of L. E. left yesterday afternoon, accompanied by the local drill team for Albany, where they will attend the annual state convention of the order. The drill team, which consists of 24 members, will exemplify the ritual work of the order at the meeting this afternoon. The sessions will be held in the Eastern Star rooms in Albany.

"Been my druggist now for fifteen years"

The other day a prescription was sent in to us—to be filled and do. The customer lived in a remote corner of town and sent the prescription by a friend. But she knew that we would fill and deliver it promptly. Because we had "been my druggist for fifteen years" she knew she could depend on us.

We like that term, "my druggist." We'll serve you just as well if you make us "your druggist."

DEATHS.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wood.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, a resident of this city for nearly 50 years, died last evening at the home of Mrs. Lulu Lull, 232 Chestnut street, with whom she and her two sons, Burr and Harry Wood, resided, following an illness of six months' duration. The funeral, which will be private, will be held at the Lull home on Saturday. The time will be announced later. Rev. Dr. R. M. Johns will officiate and the body will be taken to Pittston, Pa., her girlhood home, for interment.

Mrs. Wood was born in Pittston in 1831 and was the daughter of Norman and Phoebe (Caldwell) Lampman. In 1851 she was married to George Wood. About 50 years ago they moved from Pennsylvania to this city, where Mr. Wood died in 1875. Mrs. Wood is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jessie Cross of Davenport and Mrs. Edgar Beach of Oneonta; three sons, Walter Wood of Binghamton, and Burr and Harry Wood of Oneonta; and by a brother, Norman Lampman, of Pittston, Pa.

She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Oneonta and, until failing health forbade, was a regular attendant whose good works were evidence of her sincere faith. A kind neighbor and a loving mother, her passing will be keenly felt and deeply regretted. To the bereaved sons and daughters the sympathy of all will be extended.

VIOLATED MANN ACT?

FRANCIS SHAVENTO ARRESTED BY LOCAL POLICE ON SERIOUS CHARGE.

Mother of Fifteen-Year-Old Girl Labeled Litter After Two Months' Search — Was Living With Shavento Here.

Yesterday the local police took into custody Francis Shavento, alias Frank Condassura, who for the past month has been living on South Main street in a couple of rooms with a young woman whom he represented as his wife. The arrest followed the arrival here late the previous night of a young woman who informed the police that she had been hunting for a young daughter who left her home at New Kensington, near Pittsburgh, Pa., on Aug. 6th last. The mother, Mrs. Josephine Zella, alleged that she had followed the daughter and the fellow that she left with to New York, to Albany and to Rochester, each time failing to find them. Recently she received information that they were living in Oneonta, and she came on here.

Chief Horton called to his assistance the D. & H. police and Officer M. J. Karone was instrumental in locating the girl at the South Main street rooms. When the girl was found she stoutly denied her identity and even when confronted with her own picture she declared it was not of herself. Then the mother was taken to the rooms and she positively identified the girl. The girl then admitted that she had run away with Shavento and that they had been living together since they left her home.

Shavento, who has been working on the D. & H. section in this city, was then located and taken into custody on the complaint of the mother, who alleged abduction, declaring that the daughter is now only 15 years of age. Her name is Mrs. Jennie Rotta, she having separated from her husband, shortly after their marriage, and was living at home. Shavento had been boarding there for a few months when the pair disappeared.

Shavento will, it is now expected, be held on the charge of violating the Mann act, in that he brought the girl into this state for immoral purposes. He will probably be turned over to Deputy United States Marshal George VanValkenburg of Binghamton today and held to answer to that charge in federal court.

At first the young woman refused to accompany her mother home. It is, however, expected that when she learns that Shavento has been jailed and will probably be held to answer for the serious charges against him, she will experience a change of heart and return to New Kensington with her mother. The latter had expended all her available funds in reaching Oneonta and she rested last night in the detention ward at the Municipal building.

NEARLY ALL SAVING.

Seventy-Five Per Cent of School Children Enrolled in Banking Scheme.

Interest among school children in the savings system instituted in the city schools some weeks ago is still keen, the week ending October 18th showing an increase of 4 per cent in accounts operating. Seventy-five per cent of all the school children in the city are now enrolled.

Five additional grades have enrolled every school, the last report, making a total of seven 100 per cent rooms. The following is a list of the grades, with their teachers, which have perfect records: Fifth grade, River street, Mrs. Georgianna Patrick; first grade, Center street, Ellen Hitchcock; third grade, Center street, Miss Agnes Hitchcock; kindergarten, River street, Miss Blanche Eldred; third grade, River street, Miss Anna Larabee; fourth grade, River street, Miss Osbornette Bralnard; second B grade, River street, Miss Anna L. RIP VAN WINKLE ON THE SCREEN.

Private Showing at Strand Yesterday of Movie Classic.

"Rip VanWinkle," with Thomas Jefferson, son of the immortal Joseph, in the title role, was privately filmed at the Strand theatre after the regular performance yesterday afternoon before an audience of teachers and other invited guests. Manager Rose plans to show the picture at the Strand as a three-day attraction in the near future and took this means to acquaint the teachers with the film, which has a special appeal for children.

In the judgment of a Star representative who witnessed the filming, the picture is one of the best ever shown in the city. The story of Rip VanWinkle is a classic and it loses none of its charm and appeal in the screen version. The work of Mr. Jefferson as "Rip" is a masterpiece of character acting and does credit to the memory of his father, Joseph Jefferson, the master Rip VanWinkle of stage history.

Doubtless large audiences will view the picture when it is shown at the Strand and it is safe to say that few will be disappointed.

PEPTO-MANGAN KEEPS BLOOD PURE

Growing Children Need Plenty of Red Cells in Blood

When the young body is growing, child also frequently experiences weakness. Girls and boys sometimes play too hard and overtax their systems. They become pale, weak, and sickly. They lose their appetite, become languid, and are not able to make progress in school work. "Flowing too fast" is often true. It is most important to keep the blood of growing girls and boys in a healthy state.

Pepto-Mangan keeps the blood pure. The red cells in the blood are increased. They carry life giving oxygen to all parts of the body, and wholesome nourishment. Result in clear complexion, bright eyes and buoyant spirits. Sold both in liquid and tablet form by druggists everywhere. The name "Gladys' Pepto-Mangan" is on the package. advt.

STUDY RED SLAYERS' SKULLS

Hungarian Phenologists Report Bolshevik Terrorists Were Abnormal.

Budapest, Hungary.—Hungarian phenologists made a careful study of the skulls of 30 notorious Red terrorists hanged after the fall of communism in this country and have just reported that "bolshevist terrorists, though exhibiting signs of abnormality, seem not to belong to the type of born degenerate criminals."

All the 30 were members of Bela Kun's bodyguard called the "Lenin boys," and all were found guilty of numerous murders and robberies.

"The skulls," runs the report, "when compared with the skulls of notorious common murderers preserved in the museum of the police, show signs of degeneracy in a much less degree. The only exception is Joseph Cserny, the leader of the group, whose skull is casily first among the most deformed specimens of human degeneration. When examined during his trial the savage look of his small, evasive eyes started even the professional doctors of crime. Small wonder that Bela Kun felt afraid of the man.

"The medical board holds the view that the bolshevist terrorists, though undoubtedly degenerate, would under ordinary circumstances never have committed murder. But their resistance to crime was much weaker than that of the civilized type, and when the solid body of law and morality was shaking with revolutionary fever their half-slumbering ferocious instincts aroused and they killed with the savage passion of the neolithic man."

TIMBER GOING FAST

Being Cut Five Times Faster Than It Is Grown.

Annual Cut and Destruction of Timber Amounts to 26,000,000,000 Cubic Feet—Growth is 6,000,000,000 Feet.

The original forests of the United States have been estimated as containing $22,000,000,000 acres, which has been reduced by cutting, cultivating and burning to 137,000,000 acres; or, to put it another way, our virgin stands have been reduced to one-sixth of their original area. Sixty per cent of the original timber stand is gone, leaving us a balance of approximately 2,214,000,000,000 feet of merchantable timber, says Norman W. Scherer, assistant professor of forestry, Ohio State university.

Now that we know what our balance amounts to, we may logically ask the question: "What is our annual consumption?" It includes an average annual cut of 40,000,000,000 feet of lumber, somewhere between 100,000,000 and 125,000,000 railroad ties, 4,500,000 cords of pulpwood, and about 110,000,000 cords of fuel. Under normal conditions, our per capita consumption of timber amounted to between 500 and 525 board feet, but with the pressure of war this was brought down to approximately 800 board feet, and we are still suffering from the economic curtailment. The average consumption for Europe amounts to 60 board feet per capita, while for all other countries it is about four board feet. The average for the world population of 1,600,000,000 as saw material is 40 board feet.

Our tremendous consumption of lumber has been a most potent factor in elevating our standard of living, and it would not be a happy solution of the problem to curtail our consumption. Rather let us increase our production.

The annual cut and destruction of timber amounts to 26,000,000,000 cubic feet, while the annual growth amounts to only 6,000,000,000 cubic feet. We are consuming timber, then, about five times as fast as we are producing it.

HAWAII IMPORTS UGLY BUGS

Insect From Australia Saves Sugar Growers From Pest—Ischlogonus Is His Name.

Honolulu, T. H.—Ischlogonus is only about a quarter of an inch in length, moreover it is black and pug-nosed, but he has been adopted by the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' association, as one of its pet children.

"Ischi" is a bug. It is British by birth, having appeared originally in Australia. It is being imported in job lots by planters to wage war on their enemy and his, syngrius fulvitaris.

"Sy" is a scale armored insect that ruins the sadleria fern growing on the mountain sides. These ferns and other vegetation are useful in regulating the runoff of waters from the mountains. In protecting the ferns and hence helping to avert alternate torrent and drought, Ischlogonus is proving a valuable aid to the Hawaiian planters.

Get More Profits by Clearing More Land!

Measure the Profit of Your Stump Land—Cleared!

PLAN right now to clear off more land before planting—and after harvest, too. Use the "off-seasons" to provide for bigger profits on future crops. One crop usually pays the entire cost of clearing and leaves a profit besides. All following crops are clear profit.

The great land-clearing movement that swept the country in 1920 is even stronger in 1921—farmers the country over are clearing more land this year than ever before.

The modern way is to use dynamite for blasting out stumps and boulders for this method is very rapid, reasonable in cost and leaves the land in good condition for cultivation. The majority of farmers use
